

Every Minute Counts!

If your child is late they are missing out.

If your child is regularly late it will affect their learning at school.

Give your child the best start to the school day by arriving at 8:30am.