

Marden Primary School Home – school agreement

We recognise that the education of your children is a venture shared between you, the parents, and us the staff of the school.

We each have our part to play. We welcome your support, value your involvement and are pleased to see you in school.

Agreement for the school

The school will do its best to:

- Ensure your child's safety.
- Deliver a balanced and carefully planned curriculum which meets the needs of your child and the requirements of the National Curriculum.
- Encourage your child to work hard and do their best, fostering a love of learning.
- Ensure that homework tasks reflect your child's learning needs.
- Foster feelings of confidence, self worth and belonging.
- Contact you if we have worries about your child's work, behaviour, attendance or punctuality.
- Provide a range of experiences designed to enrich your child's experience.
- Welcome you into the school and keep you informed about school policies and guidelines.
- Ensure staff are available, by arrangement to discuss your child's progress and welfare.
- Ensure that teaching staff keep up to date on educational initiatives which might affect your child, and to keep you informed of these.

Agreement for the pupils

To help me do well at school, I will do my best to:

- Work hard and listen carefully.
- Ask the teacher or someone at home if I find my work hard.
- Do my homework and read at home.
- Behave well and keep the school rules.
- Be polite and helpful to other pupils and adults.
- Always try and enjoy school and help others do the same.
- Talk at home about what I learn in school.
- Wear my school uniform with pride.

Agreement for parents/carers

To help my child at school I will do my best to:

- Ensure that my child attends regularly and absences are properly notified.
- See that my child arrives at school and is collected promptly at the beginning and end of the school day.
- Actively support the school's policies, particularly those on behaviour and equal opportunities.
- Ensure that my child wears the school uniform.
- Talk to the school if my child is worried or if something happens to affect my child's learning.
- Attend parents evenings and discussions about my child's progress in school.
- Support my child in his/her homework and wherever possible promote opportunities for home learning.
- Ensure that my child goes to bed at a reasonable time on school nights.
